Computer Investigations

Tectonic Energy Consulting Inc. Security Division provides Computer Investigation services to both the general public as well as to corporations. Like Forensic Data recovery, we offer one of the key elements in every data forensics procedure... TIME!

Computer investigations encompass the more elusive crafts of email tracing to a sender, identification of bloggers and other online posters, as well as information gathering from online mediums for which no other method of collection would otherwise exist.

The biggest enemy in any online investigation is time. From mitigating an anonymous online smear campaign, to tracing blog posts and emails to their origin, the sooner we are engaged, the easier it will be to achieve a positive resolution to the matter.
